

MISS ZAYDE BRANCH TO WED E. ADDISON RENOOLS

Ceremony Will Take Place Very Quietly To-Day at 1 o'clock.

ALL INVITATIONS RECALLED

Miss Margaret L. Minor to Become Bride of J. Ambler Caskey This Afternoon at Gale Hill, in Albemarle County.

The marriage of Miss Zayde Branch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kerr Branch, to Edmund Addison Renoolds, son of Mrs. Robert G. Renoolds and the late R. G. Renoolds, of Richmond, is to be celebrated very quietly to-day at 1 o'clock at 1 West Franklin Street, owing to mourning, the invitations for the church ceremony were recalled and only the immediate families will attend the ceremony.

Albemarle Wedding.

An interesting wedding to be celebrated to-day in Albemarle County is that of Miss Margaret Lee Minor, daughter of John Minor, to Jacquelin Ambler Caskey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ambler Caskey, of Richmond. The ceremony will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at "Gale Hill," the country estate of the bride's father, near the University of Virginia, and Rev. H. B. Lee, D. D., of Charlottesville, will officiate. The marriage is to be a very quiet one on account of the recent death of the bride's uncle, and only the immediate families will witness the ceremony.

Miss Phyllis L. Jones, of Richmond, will attend the bride as maid of honor, and John Caskey, of this city, will be the brother's best man. Mr. Minor will give his daughter away.

Miss Minor has frequently visited here as the guest of Miss Jones, and both bride and groom belong to families long prominent in the social and political history of the State. The wedding, although a quiet affair, is one of the most important nuptial events of the late winter season.

Entertainment at "Buck Hill."

Smart society is deeply interested in "The Dance of a Night," which will be presented by a number of pretty girls at "Buck Hill," the home of the Misses Vaden, in South Richmond, on Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock. The play, which is a charming comedy, is given for the benefit of the building fund of Meade Memorial Episcopal Church, in South Richmond, and a great many Richmond people will go to "Buck Hill" to attend it. Some of the younger society girls of Richmond have been cast for the play, and the entertainment will be one of the most interesting charity events of the week. Several parties have already been made up to attend the play, and the audience will include a large contingent of the younger girls and men of Richmond.

Today's Events.

Mrs. John Hunter is chairman of the afternoon at the Woman's Club to-day at 4 o'clock, when John Powell will give the annual address. He will give another informal talk on his impressions of the war in Europe. Mr. Powell gave a thoroughly engrossing talk at the club last week, and a large audience will be present to hear him again to-day.

Miss Hattie Bell Gresham will meet her Story Class at the Art Club of Richmond this afternoon at 4 o'clock. All sorts of charming stories, with their origin and underlying meaning, are discussed at these class meetings, and the mothers and teachers of Richmond are greatly interested in them.

Indoor Golf.

The indoor golf team at the Jefferson Hotel continue to draw large and interested gatherings. It is not in the least necessary to play golf to attend them, and the team, which is in the palm garden of the Jefferson, are crowded each afternoon in the week, except Saturday, with enthusiastic spectators. Mrs. De Soto, Miss Clark and Mrs. Thomas Scott were hostesses yesterday afternoon, and they were assisted by Mrs. Granville Gray, Mrs. William Augustine, Mrs. Loran Golsan and Miss Edith Grant.

Small Functions of Note.

Mrs. Llewellyn W. Leigh, of Monument Avenue, invited a few girls in yesterday afternoon for tea to meet Misses Margaret and Eleanor Potts, of Shepherdstown, W. Va., who are here on a tour here for the first time. It was a very informal affair, and the table was decorated in spring flowers. The Misses Potts, who are charming girls, were educated in Paris, and have been very popular in society since their debut.

Mrs. Stewart M. Woodard, of 917 Floyd Avenue, will entertain at an informal card party this afternoon at her residence in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles Whitlock, Jr.

Minstrel Show Easter Week.

Announcement has just been made that the Girls' Auxiliary to the Belle Bryan Day Nursery will give a big minstrel show here during Easter week. Some of the best amateurs in the city will take part in this entertainment, and the dates for the performances at the Academy of Music are April 8, 9 and 10. The affair given in the academy each season is always one of the biggest charity events of the entire year, and the audiences mark notable gatherings of the ultra-fashionable set. Some of the members who will appear in the minstrel at Easter are Mrs. Gordon Smith, Mrs. Hiram Smith, Mrs. Lewis Boshier, Miss Lena Miller, Miss Jellie Scott, Mrs. Carter Polman, Mrs. Jellie Rose, Miss Isabel Carter, Elizabeth Cooke, Virginia Christian, Elsie Harrison, Julia and Archer Joyner, Helen Adams, Nora Randolph, Virginia White, Nannie Patton, Elsie Lindsey, Selma White, Mrs. S. S. Sturges, Fred Campbell, Mrs. Herbert Chaborn, Mrs. Charles Whitlock, Mrs. Croxon Gordon and Mrs. Douglas Vanderhoof. Dr. Chandler to Speak.

Dr. J. A. Chandler will address the Woman's Club of Barton Heights this afternoon at 4:45 o'clock. The club will meet in the Barton Heights school-house to hear Dr. Chandler speak.

Rev. James H. W. Blake performed the ceremony at the marriage last week of Miss Hannah Somerville Matthews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stoddard Matthews, and Lieutenant Edmund P. Parker, U. S. A., which took place at Christ Church, Georgetown, in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white crepe de chine with seed pearl embroidery and a long court train. Her veil was held with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Grace Matthews was maid of honor for her sister and wore rose pink chiffon over pink taffeta, and carried a bouquet of white roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Lucia Hollerith, Miss Lucy Mackall, Miss Helen Nicholson and Miss Mary Parker. Their dresses were of pink satin veiled in tulle, and they carried bouquets of Richmond roses.

Little Lucy Mackall, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a white mull and lace dress over pink, with pink ribbons, and carried a basket of pink sweet peas. Miss Parker was best man, and the ushers were Lieutenant Edwin St. John Greble, Lieutenant Samuel R. Hopkins, Lieutenant Alexander James, Lieutenant Richard C. Burson, and the bride's two brothers, Henry S. Matthews and Charles M. Matthews. A small reception followed at the bride's home. The bride has a number of relatives and friends in Richmond, as well as throughout the State.

To Dance at Valentine Party.

One of the most charming features of the Valentine party given by the Mary Thomas Auxiliary to the Virginia Home for Incurables, on Saturday afternoon at the Jefferson Hotel, will be the dancing of a number of the pupils of Miss Idear Steele Taylor from Petersburg. The grand march will take place at 4 o'clock, and some of the children taking part in the exhibition dances will be Margaret Williams, Virginia Bowman, Lauretta Powers, Russell Young, Olivia Pitt, Miriam Gellman, Marie Booth, Arline Tregler, Pauline Bowman, Helen Reagan, Cecelia Rosenstock and Margaret Powers.

This Valentine function is an annual event, and all the little boys and girls of the fashionable set will be out in force to attend it.

Benefit Performance.

On Tuesday, February 16, the White Memorial Circle of King's Daughters will have a benefit performance at the Little Theatre. A special attraction is offered, and the Mary Pickford film, "The Circle Works," will be shown. The circle works chiefly for the Belle Bryan Day Nursery, and the committee in charge of the entertainment includes some of the most prominent women in the city. All interested are cordially invited to attend.

Mills-Goddin.

On Saturday, February 6, at 11 o'clock the marriage of Miss Isabel Goddin to Edward Meredith Mills was celebrated at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Charles H. Mason, 1805 Grove Avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. C. James, of Grove Avenue Baptist Church, in the presence of only the immediate relatives. The groom was attended by Hall Mason, who acted as best man. Mrs. Mason being matron of honor for her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Mills left after the ceremony, and after spending several days in Washington, Chicago, Ill., and Denver, Col., will return on their journey West to Los Angeles, where they will make their future home.

Middleburg Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Susan Haxall and Dr. Wade Hampton Frost will take place quietly this afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bolling Walker Haxall, near Middleburg, Loudoun County.

Miss Haxall is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bolling Walker Haxall, of Richmond, and of Major Burr Powell Noland, of Loudoun County. Dr. Frost, who is passed assistant surgeon in the United States Public Health Service, is a son of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Frost, of Virginia and Charleston.

The present home of the Woman's Club here was formerly the old Haxall residence in Richmond, where a great many brilliant balls were given.

Among the Richmond people noted in New York during the past week have been J. Thompson Brown, Miss Rosa B. Hexter, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brown, Miss Margaret Gordon and Mrs. Sallie Montgomery Brown.

JOHN POWELL SPEAKS ON FRESH-AIR ART SOCIETY

Tells Art Club of Unique Organization, Originating in Paris.

GREAT MEN AMONG MEMBERS

Urges Formation of Branch Among Literary, Artistic and Musical Colonies of Richmond for Development of Best in Art.

When it was announced that John Powell would speak on the Fresh Air Art Society at the Art Club of Richmond, folks asked, "And what is that?" It is not the first time the question has been asked, Mr. Powell says. To the writer, however, who filled the club yesterday afternoon, he talked of the difficulties that had beset the organization at its birth, of the fun that had been poked at it by press and public, especially by the critics who apparently expected to see the artists perform in thunderstorms in promulgation of the fresh air theory.

Fresh air, he explained, was used figuratively in contradistinction to vitiated air, and he went on to say that it was the object of the organizers to stand for healthy ideas in art—art meaning the art of the painter, the musician, the writer, the actor, the dancer, the sculptor.

They drew up a declaration of principles which summed up means that art is to be a means to an end and not an end itself; that life must be understood, its responsibilities acknowledged before anyone can be a great artist.

SOME GREAT ARTISTS

IN FOUNDATION SOCIETY

The foundation members of the society, among the names some of the world's greatest artists, in sculpture the name of Auguste Rodin; music, Rimsky Zimbalist; in literature, Warrington Dawson.

Valerie Dawson, who was at one time editor of the Charleston (S. C.) News and Courier, was one of the prime factors in establishing the society, which is to be international in its scope, with London headquarters.

Mr. Powell read the whole of Mr. Dawson's original address, and after the meeting spoke of the possibilities of establishing the first branch of the society in the United States, in Richmond.

"It would be a great pleasure to me if I could know it was done in my own city," he said, and mentioned as good reasons for its being done the fact that such women as Mary Johnston and Ellen Glasgow belonged to Richmond, with its traditions and historic setting.

Annual Meeting of Chamber.

The annual meeting of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce will be held tomorrow night in the auditorium of the Jefferson Hotel. Officers and directors for the ensuing year will be elected at this meeting, and other business of an interesting and important character will be transacted. After the business session is over, a smoker will be held to afford the members of the chamber to become better acquainted.

FACE DISFIGURED WITH PIMPLES

And Blackheads, Shoulders and Arms Also Covered. Itched and Burned Terribly. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In Four Weeks Healed.

619 "M" St., N. E., Washington, D. C.—

"I had pimples and blackheads on my forehead, and in a short time my face, shoulders, and arms were completely covered. The pimples were large and red and they festered. My face was disfigured and itched and burned terribly at times so that I had to scratch it. That made the pimples so bad I could not sleep nights."

"I took many remedies, but they did me no good. The trouble continued for two years, and then I saw the advertisement of Cuticura Soap and Ointment in the paper and sent for a free sample. The sample helped me and I bought some Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In two weeks my friends remarked the change, and in four weeks I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Adella Reed, August 28, 1914.

When you have these fragrant, super-creamy emollients and prophylactics at hand you have a reliable protection for the skin under all conditions of exposure. Unrivaled for the toilet and nursery.

STOLEN MOTOR CAR IS FOUND NEAR PETERSBURG

Police Locate Machine of Paul Blanchard, Abandoned on Roadside.

After a search of several days, in which they had thoroughly covered Richmond and the immediate vicinity in an effort to locate Paul Blanchard's automobile, which was stolen from before the Commonwealth Club last Friday night, Policemen Samuels and Walker went to Petersburg on Monday. There they secured a clue which they followed to an isolated spot some miles down the Conduit Road, which connects with the Petersburg Turnpike, where the lost car was found standing beside the road.

It had been in the place some days, the Petersburg police having been informed of its location by a Mrs. Groce-man, who lives in the vicinity. She noticed it standing there and telephoned the Petersburg police, but owing to a mistake in taking the number of the machine over the telephone, the Petersburg authorities did not recognize it as the lost car. Policeman Samuels made the trip in his police car, and Policeman Walker, who is an expert mechanic, ran the stolen machine back to this city.

Mr. Blanchard, who lives at 3400 Monument Avenue, is a brother-in-law of W. A. Forbes. He reported the loss of his car shortly before midnight last Friday.

Debate at High School.

The Phi Kappa Epsilon Debating Society of the John Marshall High School held an interesting debate last night, the question being: "Resolved, That the United States will benefit as a result of the European war." The affirmative, supported by Miss E. B. Brooke and N. L. Flippin, won the decision over the negative, supported by Miss Helma Sonenberg and J. L. Klack. The judges awarded Miss Brooke the honor of making the best argument.

Chemists to Meet.

The regular monthly meeting of the Virginia Chemists' Club will be held at the Medical College of Virginia, Twelfth and Clay Streets, on Friday at 8:30 o'clock. Dr. E. W. Magruder, chief chemist of the State Department of Agriculture, will read a paper on "Liquids in Canned Vegetables," which should prove interesting.
